Fr. Todd's Final Sundays

This coming Sunday, February 26th, will be Fr. Todd's final Sunday with us; he'll preach and preside at all three morning services, and he hopes to see you all for one final Sunday before he leaves town! We'll also have celebratory coffee hours after all three morning services.

Easter Outreach

It's already time to think about feeding our hungry neighbors on Easter. This year, we are again supplying hams for the Twin Lakes Food Bank. Shoppers, bring your 7-9lb bone-in ham (spiral-sliced preferred!) to the Parish Hall kitchen during coffee hour on February 19th or 26th. If you forget to pick one up when you go shopping, you can sponsor a ham with a donation of $35 (memo the check or envelope Easter Hams).

We'll also be helping the Orangevale-Fair Oaks Food Bank to provide Easter baskets to the children served there. You can sponsor a basket, filled with treats but also with necessities, for $20 (memo the check or envelope Easter Baskets).

If you're making a monetary donation, you can write a check to the church (just memo it Easter Hams or Baskets), use one of the pew envelopes, or use one of the envelopes the Outreach Committee is printing up – ask for one from an usher or at coffee hour.

Knitters, crocheters, and more will meet Sunday, March 5th, 5:30-6:30pm in the Annex (802 Mormon St.). Bring your project and enjoy some company and conversation while you work.

Youth Group March 5th

Youth group meets from 4pm to 7pm on Sunday, March 5th, for game night: flashlight tag, and hide and seek. Meet in the Parish Hall! ### Music Notes ~ A British March

This week's postlude is "Allegro marziale e ben marcato" from Six Pieces by British composer Frank Bridge. Bridge is perhaps best remembered as the first composition teacher of Benjamin Britten, one of England's most beloved composers from the 20th century. However, Bridge's own compositional output is substantial, though largely unknown. A student of Charles Stanford at the Royal College of Music in London, Bridge was well respected both as a composer of chamber music and as a concert violist. He taught Britten to play the viola as well. Bridge wrote several keyboard works, including this lovely set of six pieces, which includes “Allegro marziale.” ~ Dr. Brett Judson, Director of Music
